Attention: Mr. Patrick Wruck, Commission Secretary

Dear Mr. Wruck:

Re: FortisBC Energy Inc. (FEI)
2020 Customer Choice Annual Program Statistics
FEI Submission on Annual General Meeting (AGM)

On February 22, 2021, in accordance with British Columbia Utilities Commission (BCUC) Order A-10-12, FEI submitted its Customer Choice Annual Program Statistics for the 2020 calendar year. On June 16, 2021, the BCUC responded with a letter (Exhibit A-2) to FEI and licensed gas marketers requesting submissions on “...whether an AGM process is warranted this year, and if so, the proposed issues for discussion.”

FEI is not aware of any issues of concern from licensed gas marketers about the Customer Choice Annual Program Statistics for 2020 that would warrant holding an AGM. As such, FEI believes an AGM is not required this year. From FEI’s perspective, the Customer Choice Program continues to run efficiently and FEI has no significant issues that necessitate incurring the costs of holding a full AGM. FEI suggests that if there are any program-related issues, those could likely be addressed through written submission if necessary. However, should the BCUC determine that an AGM is necessary, FEI submits that from its perspective, a web-based meeting is feasible.

If further information is required, please contact Scott Webb, Manager, Data Analytics and Research at 604-592-7649.

Sincerely,

FORTISBC ENERGY INC.
