Attention: Mr. Patrick Wruck, Commission Secretary

Dear Mr. Wruck:

Re: FortisBC Energy Inc. (FEI)
2021 Customer Choice Annual Program Statistics
FEI Submission on Annual General Meeting (AGM)

On February 28, 2022, in accordance with British Columbia Utilities Commission (BCUC) Order A-10-12, FEI submitted its Customer Choice Annual Program Statistics for the 2020 calendar year. On June 21, 2022, the BCUC responded with a letter (Exhibit A-2) to FEI and licensed gas marketers requesting submissions on “...whether an AGM process is warranted this year, and if so, the proposed issues for discussion.”

FEI believes an AGM is not required this year as there are no material areas of concern to be discussed. The Customer Choice Program continues to run efficiently with low levels of consumer disputes and complaints even as the Program participation rates are growing. FEI suggests any concerns be addressed through a written submission. However, should the BCUC determine that an AGM is necessary, FEI is amenable to a web-based meeting.

If further information is required, please contact Scott Webb, Manager, Data Analytics and Research, at 604-592-7649.

Sincerely,

FORTISBC ENERGY INC.
