Dear Registrar:

Re: FortisBC Energy Inc. (FEI)
2026 Customer Choice Annual General Meeting
FEI Submission

On February 27, 2026, in accordance with British Columbia Utilities Commission (BCUC) Order A-10-12, FEI submitted its Customer Choice Annual Program Statistics for the 2025 calendar year. On July 6, 2026, the BCUC responded with a letter (Exhibit A-2) inviting submissions from FEI and Licensed Gas Marketers on whether an AGM process is warranted this year, and if so, the proposed issues for discussion.

FEI believes an AGM is not required this year as there are no material areas of concern to be discussed. The Customer Choice Program continues to run efficiently with low levels of consumer disputes and complaints and the Program participation rates remain constant. FEI is not aware of any issues or concerns raised by Licensed Gas Marketers and suggests if there are any that they can be adequately addressed through a written process. However, should the BCUC determine that an AGM is necessary, FEI believes that a web-based meeting is feasible and efficient.

If further information is required, please contact Ilva Bevacqua, Senior Manager, Regulatory Affairs and Compliance at (604) 592-7664.

Sincerely,

FORTISBC ENERGY INC.
