

Time Change Impact to Stakeholders & Marketers

October 22, 2026

The Province of Alberta and British Columbia have announced that they will remain on Daylight Saving Time year-round and will not transition to Standard Time on November 1, 2026.

While the local time in Alberta and British Columbia will remain unchanged, NAESB scheduling timelines related to nomination deadlines, scheduling and confirmations are tied to the Central Clock Time (CCT). Stakeholders and Marketers should be aware that the local clock time associated with NAESB nomination cycles will shift by one hour relative to Alberta and British Columbia beginning November 1, 2026.

The below table provides the nomination cycle deadlines effective November 1, 2026 and forward.

Nomination Deadline	CCT	November to March	April to October
		(CST)	(CDT)
Timely	1:00	12:00	11:00
Evening	18:00	17:00	16:00
ID1	10:00	9:00	8:00
ID2	14:30	13:30	12:30
ID3	19:00	18:00	17:00
